2. Are you aware of anything in this person's history that would lead you to hesitate recommending them to work directly with children?

3. International Language Programs offers an experience that requires maximum individual initiative and good judgment. Considering the following factors, please comment on whether the applicant is a good fit for our program.

- Volunteers will be teaching and living with or near the children they teach, and they agree to follow safety rules and a code of conduct:
 - Abstain from alcohol, tobacco, and drugs
 - Be chaste in all relationships
 - Avoid vulgar and profane language
 - Obey the law
 - Follow all rules and help other volunteers do the same
- Volunteers are supervised by peer-age leaders.
- Volunteers have a lot of free time each day and are expected to find activities that use their time in a meaningful way (i.e. teaching preparation, language study, service projects, cultural experiences, etc.)

Our experience has been that when people are away from relatives and friends, those who struggle or have struggled with the above criteria find it even more difficult to comply in a foreign country. Knowing this, please comment on how the applicant will do with the code of conduct and standards above.

4. Do you have any concerns about the emotional, spiritual, or physical health of the applicant?

5. Can you recommend this person without any reservations?
